May 25 – July 3, 2005
Pretoria Art Museum, South Africa

What is it like to be lonely in a big city—to be a part of a bustling urban landscape and yet be alone, unwanted, ignored. To be part of the beautiful mosaic that makes up the diversity of the 'rainbow nation' and yet be considered as a pollutant. To be the foundation of a society and yet not be seen as one of its members.
