'Crossing Boundaries: Contemporary Art and Artists from South Africa'

Curated by Jochen Sokoly and Ortrud Mulder, this show brings together a diverse group of Contemporary artists whose works represent artistic practises ranging from photography to mixed media, print, installation and text. The exhibition also reflects discourses on culture, environment, society and the self, and in doing so, provides an insight into Contemporary post-Apartheid South African art. Participating artists include Lien Botha, Svea Josephy, Sharlene Khan and Nomthunzi Mashalaba, among others.
