

Art-stopping Stuff

Masters art student, Sharlene Khan, who recently returned from the UK was selected to participate in a two-week workshop at Pretoria Technikon. The Department of Arts, Culture, Science and Technology sponsored the project.

An acclaimed artist, Sharlene has been involved in painting several murals at City Hospital, Mahatma Gandhi Memorial Hospital and AIDS Mural on campus. She has also had her works shown at two exhibitions in Durban.

According to Sharlene, " The workshop was incredible as it introduced disadvantaged artists to techniques and ideas in monument-making. Both formally trained and self-taught artists worked together in a creative and inspiring atmosphere."

Naidu, K. 'Art-Stopping Stuff'

Durban: Inside UDW, August/September 1999, p. 4